

Examination Procedure

[Part 1] Rules to be followed in the Examination

1. Students shall present at the Examination Hall at least 15 minutes before starting the examination. The students shall not enter the hall until they are requested to do so by the Supervisor.
2. Any student who is admitted to the examination hall after the first half-an-hour shall be considered as an unauthorized candidate of the examination. Such a student shall be given an unauthorised/ late form. However, no additional time will be allowed for them to complete the examination.
3. Once admitted to the examination hall students are not allowed to leave the hall until the examination is over.
4. On admission to the hall, students shall occupy the seat assigned to them and shall not move from the permission of the Supervisor.
5. Students must have their Student Identity Card and Admission Card with him/her. If a student fails to bring his/ her Student Identity Card, he/ she is required to sign a statement and submit the Student Identity Card to the Senior Assistant Registrar/ Examinations. If a student loses his/ her Student Identity Card, they can apply for a duplicate Id Card from the Office of University of Colombo.
6. Admission Cards are signed in the presence of the Supervisor/Invigilator and attached to the examination paper.
7. Students shall bring their own pens, ink or any other approved equipment and materials.
8. Examination stationery (ie. Writing paper, graph paper, rough sheets, etc.) shall be supplied for the Examination. Answer books supplied to the students shall not be torn or mutilated. All materials whether used or unused shall be left behind and shall not be removed from the hall.
9. Students are prohibited to keep any notes, formulae or any other unauthorized materials in the examination. Books, handbags etc. which a student has brought with him/her shall be shown by the Supervisor/ Invigilator.
10. Every student shall enter his/ her Index Number at the appropriate place on the continuation paper. A student who writes another student's index number on the continuation paper is considered as having attempted to cheat. The Supervisor/ Invigilator has the authority to check the scripts of the student. An answer script that bears no Index Number or an Index Number not identified, might be rejected. Students shall not write their names on the answer script.
11. Students are under the authority of the Supervisor and shall carry out instructions given by the Supervisor/ Invigilator throughout the examination.
12. Every student shall maintain absolute silence in the Examination hall and its surroundings. It is not permitted to communicate with or to have any dealing with any person in the Examination hall. Invigilator. If a student needs to draw the attention of the Supervisor/ Invigilator, he/ she should raise his/ her hand from where he/ she is seated. A student can be excluded from the examination if he/ she is found to be violating the rules.
13. After starting the examination, students are not allowed to leave the Examination hall until they are requested to do so by the Supervisor.

19. Students shall not remove answer scripts from the Examination hall.
20. Students shall not copy from any material or from the answer scripts of another student, either help another student or obtain help from another student.
21. No person shall impersonate a student at the examination nor any student shall be impersonated by another person at the examination.
22. The Supervisor/ Invigilator can request a student to make a statement in writing at the examination, and such statement shall be signed by the student. No student shall refuse to make a statement or to sign it.
23. Every student who registers for an examination shall be considered to have satisfied the following conditions:
 - (a) They are permitted by the Senate for valid reason to withdraw from the examination acceptable to the Senate within the given period

OR

 - (b) They submit a medical certificate prior to the start of the examination or within the period of the examination.

[Part 2] Examination Offences and Punishments

1. Examination offences can be classified as follows:
 - (a) Possession of unauthorized documents or removal of examination stationery.
 - (b) Disorderly conduct.
 - (c) Obtaining or attempting to obtain improper assistance or cheating or attempting to cheat.
 - (d) Impersonation.
 - (e) Aiding and abetting the commission of any of these offences.
 - (f) Violation of any of the requirements or conditions stipulated in Part I.
2. There shall be an Examination Committee to inquire into and make recommendations (and impose punishments) regarding examination offences.
3. In all cases of examination offences, the Supervisor will take action and report to the Director/UCSC.
4. If a student possesses unauthorized material at an examination hall, it will be confiscated and not used until the contrary is proved by him/ her.
5. In cases of disorderly conduct, the Supervisor will in the first instance warn the student. If the student persists in disorderly conduct, the Supervisor may exclude the student from the examination and issue him/her a letter cancelling their candidature from the examination.
6. In all other cases of examination offences, the Supervisor will take over the examination. He/ she will obtain a statement from the student and write his report on the matter.
7. A student who is guilty of an examination offence is liable to following punishments:
 - (a) Removal of their name from the pass list.
 - (b) Cancellation of their candidature from whole or part of the examination.
 - (c) Suspension from any University examination.
 - (d) Suspension from the University for a specified period.
8. Any student found helping to commit an examination offence will receive the same punishment as the student who committed the offence.